Carol,

Sorry I just picked up your messages. I am afraid we will be unable to meet Tuesday, as you suggested. We are looking forward to reviewing the documents I understand you are sending us today. I expect that we will be getting back to you as soon as possible.

Bill, Sorry to have missed you when I called today. I left a voice mail message saying the proposed participate and cooperate agreement would be sent you today, along with a letter explaining the need to move promptly, which urgency stems from this activity requiring third party dealings. Owing to various travel and vacation schedules, I won't be able to send same until Monday. I'd actually called principally to urge that we have a meeting Tuesday so that we can discuss Occidental's good faith offer, given the need to move without delay. I hope you'll be able to arrange same at a time and place of your convenience. Thank you, Carol
